Amazon/Walmart Teaching Young Children about the Bible can be an important part of building their Christian faith and value system (although it's certainly not the only way to teach young people moral and ethical values.) But while biblical stories can be helpful in teaching lifelong lessons, it's not always easy for children to connect with stories that were written thousands and thousands of years ago. At more than 1,200 pages, the Bible isn't exactly fresh to read, either, and packed with so many characters and ancient tales that it can be hard to distinguish what's useful from what's out of date. Fortunately, following bible games for children help to understand all this by focusing on the relevant characters and easy-to-understand stories that can teach children of all ages powerful lessons that are sure to help them in the future. Let's face it, children are known to have short attention spans. (And these days, that goes for all of us.) But with fun flash cards and family trivia, you can help teach important lessons in faith, hope and forgiveness in a fun and interactive way that will stay with your child for years to come. BrankoPhotoGetty Images We throw the word love around quite freely. We use it to casually talk about everyday things that we like a lot. More seriously, we talk about our love for other people: Our children, our spouses, our friends, to name a few. But, unfortunately, life teaches us that all these loves are fickle. Our machine can break, ice cream can melt, or, much more seriously, our loved ones may die or disappoint us. Divine love has a different order. God will never disappoint us. God will never go away. Our Lord Jesus Christ sacrificed himself on the cross not only to stop caring about his resurrection. The Bible reminds us of these truths over and over again, both in the Old and New Testaments. Spend some time with these Bible verses that remind us of God's unconditional love; its ever available, freely gave love to all who seek it in difficult times. God's love is the only love that will never flinch and will never let you down. Take solace in your faith and know that God truly loves you, now and forever. 1 of 18 1 John 4:7-8 Beloved, let us love each other, for love from God, and the one who loves, was born of God and knows God. The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love. The good news is that God's essence is love; when we love each other, we fulfill God's most fundamental desire in our lives. 2 of the 18 2 Chronicles 6:14 Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven or on earth, keeping the covenant and showing unwavering love for his servants who walk before you with all his heart. The good news: As it was for the Israelites of the old, the love of our God never came. 3 out of 18 8:31-32 What then do we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who has not spared his own son but has given it for all of us, as he will not also be with him give us all the stuff? Good news: No matter how your enemies are going against you, if God is on your side, you have nothing to fear. 4 of the 18 Psalms 36:7 How Precious Your Unwavering Love, Oh My God! The children of humanity hide in the shadow of your wings. The good news: There is a place for all of us under the lord's protective wings. 5 of the 18 Galatians 2:20 I was crucified with Christ. It is no longer me who lives, but Christ, who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. The good news: the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross was God's love manifested. As Christians, we share the crucifixion and resurrection that followed. 6 of the 18 psalms 109:21 But you, Lord, are dealing on my behalf for your name; Because your unwavering love is good, give me! The good news: God is always available, a ready source of help in difficult times. 7 of 18 1 John 4:9-10 In this love of God manifested among us that God sent his only son into the world so that we could live through Him. In this love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be merciful for our sins. The good news: God loved you first, even before you were born, and the proof is the life of our savior Jesus Christ, who came to free us from the bondage of sin. 8 of 18 Ichha 7:18 Who is God like you, pardoning lawlessness and passing the transgression for the remnants of his inheritance? He does not retain his anger forever because he rejoices in unwavering love. The good news: Our God of forgiveness is ever willing to offer us a chance at redemption. It's never too late. 9 of the 18 Romans 5:5 And hope does not put us in shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. The good news is that God's love justifies our lives and fills us with hope for the future. 10 of 18 John 3:16 For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son that those who believe in him would not perish, but to be eternal life. The good news: Even death has no domination over those who love and love the Lord. 11 of the 18 Romans 8:28 And we know that for those who love God, all things work together for good, for those who are called according to His purpose. Good news: With God's love in our hearts, all our actions will be directed for good. 12 of 18 John 14:21 The one who has my commandments and holds them, the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and show up for him. Good news: Our love for Jesus is met with divine love and care from both the Father and the Son. 13 of the 18 Romans 8:38-39 For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor the things of the present, nor the things of the gay, nor the things of the gay, nor the strength, nor the height, nor the depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus the Lord of our Lord. Good news: there is nothing in our future, not even our own deaths, that can keep us from the love of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. 14 of 18 John 15:9 As Father loved me, so I loved you. Abide in my love. The good news: Jesus loves us, just as God the Father loved him; in this truth we can be safe in the world. 15 of the 18 Romans 5:8 But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. The good news: Although we are sinners, Christ sacrificed his life and suffered on the cross for us. There's no greater love than this. 16 of 18 John 16:27 For the Father himself loves you because you loved me and believed that I came from God. The good news: Faith and love go hand in hand, as do our love for God and His love for us. 17 of the 18 Romans 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will there be sorrow, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nudity, or danger, or sword? 18 of the 18 ephesus 2:4-5 But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our sins, made us alive with Christ. Good news: Our God of Love is also the God of life; in our faith we live and exist joyfully. It doesn't matter if you believe that the Bible is a fact or a fable... It remains an important reference source in the study of literature. These books should help you learn the Bible as literature. Read on. Learn more.
